LADY CAVENDISH VISITS ANNAPOLIS

Daughter of Canada's Governor General Accorded Signal Honor at Academy.

In addition to the distinguished members of the British commission, about whom most of the formal entertaining of this week will center. two other notable visitors are now

Lady Maude Cavendish, daughter of the governor general of Canada and a kinswoman of Lady Spring-Rice, is staying at the British embassy, and Sir Horace Plunkett, the noted Irish statesman, is passing a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Pinchot at their residence in Rhode Island avenue. Lady Maude Cavandish, daugher of

of the few visitors who have been allowed entrance to the Naval Academy since the outbreak of the war. She made the trip to Annapolis last week, accompanied by Henry White, former American am-bassador to France, and was enter-tained at luncheon by the Superintendent of the Academy and Mrs.

Arnold Robertson, first secretary of the British embassy, and Mrs. Robert-son, formerly Miss Gladys Ingalls, have leased an apartment in the Altamount, the handsome new apartment house recently erected on a corner of the estate of Col. George Truesdell, in Columbia road. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson who have been at the Lafavette since their return from their wedding trip, will take possession of the apartment next week.

Going To Nantucket Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre, son-in-law and daughter of President Wilson, have leased a bungalow at Sinscohset, Nantucket Island, Mass., for the summer months, and will arrive there on June 20 from their home at Williamstown, Mass.

Mrs. Sherman McCallum was hostess at dinner last evening, entertaining for Mrs. James Robert Mc-tertaining for Mrs. James Robert Mc-Kee. Mrs. McKee joined Mr. McKee in Philadelphia today to attend the funeral of Richard Meirs, who died on Friday after a few days' illness. Mrs. Meirs is a niece of Mrs. Fred-eric Penfield, wife of the United States ambassador to Austria-Hun-gary. She and Mrs. Meirs have been Fequent guests here of Mr. and Mrs.

Edson Bradley. Their daughter, Miss

Ann Walker Meirs, a namesake of Mrs. Penfield, was a debutante of the past season, and was one of the three buds from out of town for whom
Mrs. Bradley save the elaborate din
Mrs. Bradley save the elaborate dinbuds from out of town for whom Mrs. Bradley gave the elaborate dinner dance on December 20. Mrs. Mc-Kee will return to Washington af-ter the funeral to finish her visit to Mrs. Elkins and fill a number of engagements here.

To Give Ten Dance.

Mrs. Mason Patrick, wife of Colonel Patrick, U. S. A., commandant at the Washington Barracks, will entertain at a tea dance on May 10.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott has pur-chased the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell at 1815 Q street. She will not occupy the house until fall, when she expects to have her daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell, widow of Colonel Bromwell, U. S. A., with her. Mrs. Scott plans to spend the summer at her home in Charlevoi. Mich., and both Mrs. Bromwell and Mrs. Carl Vrooman may be with her. Their plans are not yet settled.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell have been in New York for some time. Mrs. Mitchell, accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Priscilla Lippin-cott, arrived at White Sulphur Springs yesterday, making the trip by Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Stephen L'H. Slocum, who, after passing the winter in Florida, have been at the White Sulphur Springs for several weeks, will return to Washington tomorrow and open their home in New Hampshire avenue. The house was occu-pled this winte, by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leatherbee, of Woods Hole, Mass, and Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Leatherbee left Washington about ten days ago for Chicago. Mrs. Leatherbee is a sister of Richard Crane, second secretary to the Secre-tary of State.

Col. and Mrs. Slecum, with Mrs.

John Ricketson and Miss Sarah Rick-etson, who are also returning to Washington, gave a farewell tea on the Casino lawn at the White Sulphur Springs yesterday.

Guesta of Aleshires. Miss Katherine Gage, of Philadelphia, and Miss Harriet Gillette, of Sheridan, Wyo, who is spending the winter in New York, will arrive in winter in New York, will arrive in Mashington Thursday, and will be guests of Maj. Gen. and Mrs. James B. Aleshire, U. S. A., until after the marriage of Miss Dorothy Aleshire and Ensign Alexander Gilchrist Hatch, U. S. N., on Saturday. They will be among the guests at the dinner Miss Eleanora Morgan will give in compliment to Miss Aleshire and her bridal party. The dinner will be Thursday or Friday evening, depend-ing upon the time of Mr. Hatch's ar-rival in Washington.

General and Mrs. Aleshire and the Misses Aleshire moved yesterday from the apartment in Florence Court, which they have occupied all winter, and have taken possession of the apartment in the St. Nicholas, where the marriage of Miss Aleshire and Mr. Hatch will take place.

The wedding was originally set for June, and Mr. Hatch's father and sister, Judge Francis March Hatch and Miss Harriet Hatch, expected to come to Washington from Honolulu to at-tend the marriage. However, when the date was sivanced, owing to war-time conditions, they gave up the trip, belog unable to reach here in

Mrs. Wellington Koo, wife of the Chinese minister, entertained a com-pany of twenty-four at luncheon to-day.

Evening Clinic Reception. The social committee of the Wom-an's Evening Clinic has sent cards for a reception Wednesday, April 25, from 3 to 6 o'clock, at 720 Thirteenth street. The following ladies will assist in receiving: Mrs. C. V. Wheeler, president, and Mrs. William Eaches Fendall, second, vice president of the Junior League of the National Junior Republic, Mrs. Edward B. Clock Republic; Mrs. Edward B. Clark, president of the Twentieth Century Club; Miss Elizabeth E. Poe, secretary general of the woman's section,

Navy League: Mrs. Frederick H. Brooke, Mrs. Robert S. Chew, Mrs. Henry H. Flather, Mrs. Augustus P. WAR HURRIES DATE Gardner, Mrs. Thomas P. Hutchinson, Mrs. Reeve Lewis, Mrs. George Hewitt Myers, Mrs. Charles Whitman

more, Mrs. Richard Wainwright, and Mme. Rafael Zaldivar.

This is the third and last at home of the season.

Pride of line and last at home of the season.

WEDDING PARTY

Dr. George N. Poulleff and Miss Elizabeth Samuel to Be Feted.

Miss Elizabeth Samuel, of Phili and her fiance. Dr. George N. Poulieff, first secretary of the Bul-garian legation, will be the honor guests this evening at a dinner at the Fashionable Gun Club near Philadelphia, with Miss Samuel's brother, Snowden Samuel, as host. Dr. Poulieff left Washington for Philadelphia yesterday. The marriage will take place on Thursday at 12:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snowden

The Bulgarian minister, Mr. Pana-retoff, will be best man for Dr. Pou-lieff. Mrs. Francis Robinson will at tend her sister as matron of hono nd the other attendants will include Niss Leta Sullivan, of Philadelphia. M ss Katherine Force, of New York Miss Bessie Munnikhuisen, of Balti-more; Miss Frances Clark, and Mrs. W. D. Kilduff. The ushers are to be Paulo de Godoy, second secretary of the Bra-zilian embassy; Constantin Mavroudi Effendi, second secretary of the Turkish embassy; Malcolm S. Mc-Conibe and Edmund Pendleton Tur ner, of this city; Francis Robinson and Snowden Samuel, of Philadelphia and Edward Baugh, of Annapolis.

Count de Valsseau de Chevigne, am-sistant navel attache of the French embassy, who arrived in Washington yesterday, is stopping at the Pow-

Mahera Leave White Sulphur. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Maher, the latter formerly Miss Alice Farrington Flynn of this city, who passed their honeymoon at White Sulphur, are motoring to their home in Roanoke. Mr. and Mra. George Baker St. George, who are on their wedding trip, en-tertained at luncheon yesterday at Elmhurst Farm, near White Sulphur

Mrs. William W. Mathewson has gone to New York for a short stay and is stopping at the Stratford.

Of interest to Washington is the announcement of former Congressman and Mrs. Thomas C. Thacher of Yarmouth, Mass. of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Tracher to William Armour, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Armour, of Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall and Miss Marshall, of Providence, arrived at Washington Saturday in their motor car and are spending a few days at the Willard.

Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, retired, has returned to Washington after a short visit to Atlantic City.

Mrs. Champ Clark and Anthony Caminetti, Commissioner General of Immigration, will address the Wo-man's National Democratic League at Congress Hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The program will include patriotic music and will be followed by a social hour. Plans will be for-mulated for some variety of patriotic work in which the members of the league may co-operate.

Miss Mabel Fryer, daughter of Judge Fryer, of Kentucky, has re-turned to her home. after spending the winter in Washington, Boston, and New York. In each city many festivities were arranged in her

Mrs. Joseph R. Lamar, widow of the ate justice of the United States Sureme Court. Is here to attend a meetping at the Shoreham.

4:30 to 6 o'clock, at National American 4:30 to 6 o'clock, at National American Woman Suffrage Association headquar-ters, 1626 Rhode Island avenue, in honor of Mrs. T. W. Noyes. Miss Nettle Lovisa. White will be the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edward B. Clark, Mrs. Fred Du-Bolse, Mrs. B. W. Halman, and Mrs. J. J. Standard. J. Stephens.

Great Statemer

Net Contents 15 Fluid Drag

900 DROPS

AVegetable Preparation for As similating the Food by Regula ting the Stomachs and Bowels of

INFANTS CHILDREN

Thereby Promoting Digestion

Cheerfulness and Rest Contain

Mineral. NOT NARCOTIC

Resign of Old Dr. SAME EL PITCHE

A helpful Remedy for Gonstipation and Diarrhoe and Feverishness and

LOSS OF SLEEP

uriting therefrom in Infancy

Fac Simile Signature of

Ole H. Hateter.

THE GENTAUR GONPANY.

NEW YORK.

At 6 months old 35 Doses - 35 CENTS

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

OF NAVY WEDDING

Bride of Lieut, J. M. Field.,

Although the wedding date was advanced because of the war and all plans rushed at the last moment, the wedding yesterday of Miss Dorothy H. Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Harding, and Lieut. John Morris Fields, jr., U. S. N., was one of the prettiest of the spring

The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Charles Briggs, at the home of the bride in Edgemoor. Md. The house has been leased by the Chilean Ambassador, Santiago Aldunate Bascunan for the summer. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present, including Miss Lucie Shriver, of Philadelphia, Miss Ada Fil, of Richmond, and Mrs. Carl Miscel, of Porto Rico, sister of the bridegroom.

The house was decorated throughout, the first floor with apple and other fruit blossoms, white lilacs and palms, artistically arranged.

The bride, who was given in mar rigae by her father, was unattended. She wore a becoming suit, fashion-ably tailored, of dark blue tricotine cloth, and a black hat adorned with an aigrette. She carried a bouquet of violets, orchids, and lilles of the

The bride's brother, Lowell S. Harding, acted as best man. An informal reception for the wedding guests followed the ceremony, after which Lieut and Mra Fields left for a short wedding journey. Lieut Fields will report to his ship at the end of the

Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Mayo, of

Rochester, Minn., are at the Willard.

The superintendent of the Naval Academy and Mrs. Edward W. Eberle will entertain at dinner tonight at Annapolis in honor of the members of the board of visitors who are making their annual inspection of the institution. Yesterday afternoon and Mrs. Eberle gave a reception in

The hostesses for the Anthony League tea which will be given to-morrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the National American Suffrage headquarters, 1626 Rhode Island avenue, will be Mrs. Anna E. Hendley, president of the Anthony League: Mrs. Nanette B. Paul, of Paul Institute: Miss Pauline Pearce, Miss Ellen Newton, assisted by stu-N. Buckler and Mrs. Eleanore J. Bingham will recite, and a musical pro-gram has been arranged.

At New Mexico Launching.

Several Washingtonian attended the launching of the superdread naught New Mexico, launched yester day at the New York navy yard. As-sistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt represented the Sec retary of the Navy. New Mexico was officially represented by Senator Andrieus A. Jones. Senator William L. Calder of New York also was present.

Among the girls who served as maids of honor to Miss Margaret De

Baca, daughter of a former governor of New Mexico, as sponsor for the great vessel, were Miss Hildegards Hurley, of Washington, and Miss Virginia Carr, of New Mexico, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Eugene Carr, at her Washington home. Mrs. Carr and Eugene A. Carr accompanied Miss Carr to New The other maids of honor York. The other made of legas, were Miss Helen Kelly, of Las Vegas, and Miss Irene Molinari, of Portales, and Miss Katherine French, of Santa Fe. Miss De Baca wore a white serge suit, a white hat, and carried a hou-quet of American Beauty roses. The maids of honor were similarly gowned. After the sponsor had christened the vessel by breaking a bottle of champagne across her bgws, Miss Carr hurled against the side of the The Twentieth Century Country Club will entertain at tea this afternoon from 30 to 6 o'clock, at National 4.

Funeral services for Col. William Oliver Drew, eighty-eight years old, veteran of the civil war, and for veteran of the civil war, and for many years employed in the Treas ury Department, who died yesterday at the home of his daughter. Mrs. Clara I. Goodwin, 3238 Prospect ave

Mothers Know That

Genuine Castoria

Over

Thirty Years

Always

Bears the Signature

nue northwest, will be held at the residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow after-noon. Colonel Drew was born in Washington. Three daughters, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Annie E. Kurtz, 313. P street northwest, and Mrs. Emma F. Carroll, 1503 Twelfth street northwest, and a son, George Washington Drew, survive him.

D. A. R. SERVICE LEADER Mrs. Matthew Scott Named to Head

National Committee. "Raise potatoes," said Mrs. Matthew Scott to the D. A. R.

"Show them how to raise them." said Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey, new president general. And so it is that Mrs. Scott heads the D. A. R. committee on national service. The other members of the committee are Mrs James Grant, of Colorado; Mrs William H. Wait, of Michigan; Mrs. Frank B. Ellison, of Boston; Mrs. John C. Ames, of Chicago, and Mrs. F. H. Calhoun, of South Carolina. They will form the permanent na-tional committee which will co-operate with the Council of National De

The council has already informed the daughters that they can be of the greatest service by planting corn and potatoes, cultivating waste land, and exercising economy in the kitchen. Mrs. Guernsey appointed Mrs. George Maynard Minor, of Connecticut, chairman of the D. A. R. magazine committee. Mrs. Guernsey announced a complete reorganization of the magazine staff, with Miss Natalie Sumner Lincoln as editor.

FUNERAL FOR J. A. MARTIN. Funeral services for James Arther Martin, of Takoma Park, and for some years a resident of Bethlehem, Pa., who died at the Emergency Hospital Sunday are being held this afternoon from Trinity Church, Takoma Park Interment will be in Rock Creek Cem

Prior to his removal to Bethlehem, Mr. Martin was active in Takoma Park civic affairs. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bertha Weston Martin, and his mother, Mrs. Annie R. Martin, the latter of Takoma Park.

HURT WHEN AUTO UPSETS.

Norman Steele, eighteen years old, of Capitol Heights, Md., was seriousof Capitol Poignts, Md., was serious-ly injured yesterday evening when the automobile he was operating on Hunt street, skidded over the em-bankment, overturned, and hurled Steele several feet down the decline. He was removed to Casualty Hospital in an ambulance, suffering from a fracture at the base of the skull. To-day it was reported he probably will

GIRL TROOP MEETS CATERPILLAR DRIVE

Wriggly, Clinging, Persistent Pest Invests Camp and Is Put to Rout.

War broke out today in the camp of the 250 National Service School girls on the Conduit Road, Casualties have been enormous. Censored dispatches indicate that the girls in khaki have won a swift and sangui-

Early this morning a young camper was picking her way through the high grass back of the camp when she shrieked. A sergeant ran to her. "O-o-o-oh!" faltered the camper, "a CATERPILLAR!"

The sergeant looked at the grass.

Her shrick arose in tone high above that of the private. That's what rank does. "TWO Caterpillars! Big furry

Back to headquarters the two Back to headquarters the two scouts hurrled. Forces weip marshaled, fires built, means of destruction devised, and led by two policemen and fifteen intrepid marines, the full strength of the garrison lescended upon the invaders.

Legions upon legions of caterpillars seemed to have sprung out overnight. Everywhere werd caterpillars, leering from the branches of shrubs, crawling from the branches of shrubs, crawling.

from the branches of shrubs, crawling sluggishly over benches and moving quiveringly on the ground. By 11 o'clock the surviving horde

By 11 o'clock the surviving horde was in full flight down the craggy banks leading to the Potomac, where many were drowned, perhaps.

Over night the campus completely changed its appearance. When the girls arose this morning they found that the wild flowers had burst into bloom everywhere.

bloom everywhere. Yesterday Maj. Gen. G. T. M. Bridges and Capt. Spender-Clay, of the British delegation, called on the camp-

CHEMISTS TO SEE BAKERY.

The George Washington University Chemical Society will elect officers at its next meeting. Nominations are: President, F. Fogle, P. Brattain: vice president, W. Scully, P. Cathcart; sec-retary, W. S. Brown, G. Gersdorf, F. LaDuc; treasurer, W. Hellmuth, W. Brown; press representative, P. Brattain, H. Shinnick; executive committee, H. Miles, E. Kain; W. F Pahl, A. Cross, W. Stockett, and G. Gersdorf, Members of the society will inspect a local bakery Saturday afternoon, as-sembling at the medical school build-ing, 1325 H street northwest, at 1 o'clock.

To wash silk underwear Glove Silk! Grepe de Chine! Washable Satins!

Get out the most pre- When you see how collection-

-your very favorite bit of sheer silk, cobwebby lace and soft ribbons-

-the one you have always dreaded to trust to soap and water.

Wash it with Lux.

Yes, Lux and lukewarm water.

Washit dozens of times, the Lux way, and it won't turn yellow!

Hard to believe?

Perhaps-after the discouraging experiences you have had with ordinary soaps. But Lux is wholly different from anything you have ever

cious brassiere in your often your daintiest. prettiest silk garments can be launderedwhen you see how they keep their whiteness and their fresh, silky sheen-when you realize that you can wear them so much more often-you will say you wouldn't be without Lux-not even if it cost four times its pricel

See the flakes yourself

Get a package of Lux, pure essence of soap in flakes, and see for yourself. Try itl Lux can't injure anything that pure water alone will not injure. On sale at grocery and department stores. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

X 10¢ Won't turn silks yellow

W. B. Moses & Sons. F and 11th Sts.

Lace Curtains, Rugs, Blankets, Draperies, cleaned and stored. Cold storage for Rugs.

65c Pure Linen Suiting; plain colors; 36-inch, 50c yard.

$3.00 Oyster White Linen Sheeting; steam shrunken; 90 inches wide; Belgian linen; medium weight; $2.50 yard.

"De Luxe" White English Cotton Voile, 25c yard. Just as the name implies; 39 inches wide;

French Lingerie Mercerized Batiste; flesh, pink, and blue tints; 50 inches wide; soft, fine weave; 50c yard.

Rare St. Gall Embroidered Swiss; all size dots, figures, floral, and dotted stripes; 65c to 85c regular; for 50c yard.

For Home-Sewn Lingerie

English Tarantulle, 39 inches wide; 39c, 45c, and 65c yard.

English Nainsook, 12-yard pieces; $2.00, $2.60, $3.25, and $3.75 piece.

English Longcloth; 12-yard pieces; $2.50, $3.00, $3.25, and $3.50 piece.

"Art Needlework Salon"

A special class for Children and Misses is being organized, in which all can compete for prizes to be awarded by competent art needlework judges, for the most perfectly finished article.

Stamped pieces must be selected from our stock, no restrictions as to article—only work must be started in our Salon.

Names to be entered for class up to April 28, when class begins, ending May 26.

Prizes and winners announced May 27.

Free instructions for this special class each Saturday, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.; 2 p. m. to 5:30 p. m.

JOIN NOW.

Drapery Department Voile and Marquisette Curtains at Special Prices

All are full width and 21/2 yards long, and may be had in white, cream, and ecru. Many have hemstitched hem edges, some are finished with lace edge, while others have lace edge and insertion. Very specially priced at $1.35, $1.55, and $1.85 a

$7.50 Utility Boxes, $5.75

· Utility Boxes, covered with pretty cretonne and trimmed in white enamel. Each box has fitted sliding tray and is finished with castors.

Cretonne Couch Covers

Varied assortment of colors, 70 inches wide by 234 yards long; hemmed all around; special, $1.95.

Lawn Swings

Four-passenger Lawn Swing; construction of the best; made from a special lumber. Frame colored red, with natural wood carriage and hangers.

Couch Hammocks

Khaki Couch Hammock; steel frame and spring bottom chair suspension; adjustable windshield; a very strong and durable hammock; $6.75.

Cretonne Pillows

Made from domestic and imported cretonnes by expert workmen in our own shops; filled with pure silk floss; $1.00.

$1.00 Candle Sticks, 65c

Solid Mahogany Candle Sticks, nicely turned designs; each has brass drip cup.